I came into ministry later in life after over 20 years in the business world. Maybe this explains some of why I was surprised when I entered the ministry at how hard churches can be on a pastor. I never knew. My church leadership blog has given me access into the lives of hundreds of pastors. Many ...

A Word of Encouragement to Pastors During Pastor ...

Just the simple act of enlisting, making the choice to serve one's country, is a moment worthy of celebration. Which is why it stands to reason that when men and women of the military are deployed, transferred or move toward retirement, those milestones must be treated with the utmost respect. It isn't enough to mark the day, to put together a cursory celebration.
